CHRISTMAS

TRADITIONS & THEIR ORIGINS

It is a religious holiday and a cultural phenomenon! Celebrated on December 25th, it's a time of joy with family and friends. People love decorating their houses. British and American people love sending Christmas cards, and they decorate their living rooms with the cards they receive from friends or family. Sending Christmas cards is a very old tradition in English-speaking countries. The first cards were created in London in 1843.

Pulling crackers

DO IT YOURSELF!

You can create your Christmas Crackers!

At Christmas dinner, people have fun with "Christmas crackers", displayed on the table. You pull the cracker with your neighbour and it opens with a "bang". You get little presents like paper hats...
