

Complète ces deux dialogues entre un vendeur et un client :

A. Retrouve les phrases dites par le vendeur (the shop assistant) qui finit par proposer une robe à £50:

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : Good morning !

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : Yes ! I'm looking for a present for my best friend. It is her birthday on Saturday.

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : Well... She likes trendy (à la mode) clothes, so I guess a nice skirt would be OK.

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : Mmm... I don't know. I am not sure she likes wearing mini-skirts.

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : Oh yes! I agree. Do you have it in blue ? It's her favourite colour.

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : How much is it ?

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : Great ! Here you are ! Thank you very much!

Shop assistant : _____

Customer : Have a nice day too! Bye.

B. Retrouve les phrases dites par la cliente qui cherche un vêtement décontracté pour son ami :

Shop assistant : Hello ! Good afternoon !

Customer : _____

Shop assistant : Can I help you?

Customer : _____

_____

Shop assistant : Alright then. What does he like ?

Customer : _____

Shop assistant : Let's see... How about these skinny jeans ?

Customer : _____

Shop assistant : So what about these dungarees ? I'm sure he is going to love them!

Customer : _____

_____

Shop assistant : No problem ! Here you are ! Black dungarees.

Customer : _____

Shop assistant : They are £75.

Customer : _____

Shop assistant : You're welcome ! Have a nice day and see you soon!

Customer : _____